RE: Law Day 2010 Art Contest

DATE: March 8, 2010

Law Week 2010 will be celebrated in a few weeks, and the Judiciary of Guam and the Guam Bar Association are sponsoring the annual Law Day Art contest. The art contest allows students to recognize the importance of law in our society.

Law in the 21st Century: Enduring Traditions, Emerging Challenges is the theme for Law Day 2010. Law Day 2010 provides us with an opportunity to understand and appreciate the emerging challenges that confront our world—and the law—in the 21st century, while reaffirming enduring legal traditions.

The artwork should reflect this year's theme. The contest is open to grades Kindergarten through 5 with two categories. The deadline to submit the entries for the art contest is Friday, April 16, 2010. Each school should submit for each category, its five (5) best artwork. Teachers may wish to incorporate the contest into the class curriculum, either for a grade or for extra credit. Attached is a flyer describing the guidelines for the Art Contest.

If you would like to participate or have any further questions, please contact me at 475-3395 (fax at 475-3140) or email drosete@guamsupremecourt.com.

Thank you and I look forward to your school's participation.

LAW DAY 2010

ART CONTEST

GRADES K-5

In recognition of Law Day, the Judiciary of Guam and the Guam Bar Association is sponsoring an Art Contest to allow students to recognize the importance of law in our society.

What Is Law Day?

Law Day is a national day set aside to celebrate the rule of law, Law Day underscores how law and the legal process have contributed to the freedoms that we all share.

Law Day theme:

Law in the 21st Century: Enduring Traditions, Emerging Challenges

Law Day 2010 provides us with an opportunity to understand and appreciate the emerging challenges that confront our world—and the law—in the 21st century, while reaffirming enduring legal traditions.
