This matter comes before the court on a Transmittal and Recommendation filed on August 11, 2021, under seal, by Prosecuting Counsel as approved by the Investigative Committee of the Comprehensive Lawyer Regulatory System. Prosecuting Counsel recommends the immediate interim suspension of Respondent John Richard Bordallo Bell (“Respondent”) for alleged violation of the Guam Rules of Professional Conduct and because he poses a substantial threat of serious harm to the public.

This court has the authority to preside over attorney disciplinary actions through the Organic Act of Guam at 48 U.S.C.A. § 1424-1(a)(7), 7 GCA § 9101, and pursuant to the Guam Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement and Disability Proceedings, adopted March 16, 2021 (“GRLDE”). Based on the facts as set forth in the Transmittal and Recommendation, which are incorporated herein, the court finds that Respondent John Bell is a resident of Guam and an attorney currently licensed to practice law in Guam, and that there is evidence Respondent violated Rule 8.4(b) of the Guam Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted by this court on September 29, 2003, and memorialized through its Promulgation Order 04-002 on February 11, 2004. See GRLDE 20(a).

REINSTATEMENT ORDER

This matter comes before the court on Calvin E. Holloway, Sr.'s Request for Reinstatement of Membership, dated March 19, 2022, and Remittance of Outstanding Balance for Reinstatement of Membership, dated April 8, 2022. On March 10, 2022, the Supreme Court administratively suspended Holloway for failure to timely register and pay the Guam Bar dues for 2022 despite having be duly notified by the Supreme Court of Guam of his delinquency and given time to comply with the delinquency notice pursuant to Rules 8(c) and 8(f) of the Guam Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement and Disability Proceedings ("Rules").
